MANHATTAN IS PAYING LEASERS

NORTHERN GOLD CAMP STEADILY PRODUCING THE YELLOW METAL.

J. Watt Briggs, the hustling mine operator, is in from Manhattan and says that the camp is picking up a little. Quite a few visitors have been to the camp within the past month, and all seem highly pleased with what they saw. Numerous leases are at work and are obtaining good results. The Wolf mill is grinding away steadily on ore from the Briggs-Evans lease and is turning out the bullion. They still have another month's run on the dump. A strike on the Holesworth and Michaels lease on the Breyfogle property caused quite a little excitement in the camp. It was obtained in a cross-cut from the 200-foot level and shows free gold. It is the same character of ore as that found on the Thanksgiving and is said to be a continuation of the Thanksgiving ledge. The leasers on the Earl Mining Company's property are apparently getting good returns. They are all pushing work rapidly and before long some rich veins should be tapped. Henry Rose is taking out some rich ore from his lease on the Mustang. They are working two shifts on the property. The vein on the Lalime and Conley lease, on the Earl Mining Company's ground, which is now down 45 feet, is getting wider and the values are said to reach $50 per ton. Plamanax and Velth and the Shay leases are taking out a fine grade of milling ore on the south end of Union No. 9, the north end of this property being the place where Messrs. Evans and Briggs took out their ore.

"I look for Manhattan to be a big city sometime," said Mr. Briggs. "We have the ore on the surface and at a fair depth, but greater depth will prove the camp to be a wonder."

NEW QUARTERS FOR WESTERN UNION

The Western Union Telegraph Company has secured a space in the Nye County Mercantile store and will move their office there next Sunday. Linemen from San Francisco have arrived and preparations have begun for the moving. They will occupy a portion of the south side of the store and it is expected that they will be in the new quarters Monday morning.

CHANGE MUSICAL NUMBERS TONIGHT

BOTHWELL BROWNE COMPANY AGAIN GREETED BY A GOOD HOUSE.

A good-sized audience greeted the Bothwell Browne Musical Comedy Company last night at the Pavilion theater at their second performance given in this city. The songs and dances were well rendered and were highly appreciated by the audience. There will be a change in the musical numbers tonight, and tomorrow night the entire program will be changed. The first act will be "Vacation Time," and the second "Judge For a Day," both being light musical comedies, with just enough consecutive plot to lend it the proper amount of interest. The musical numbers are excellent. An entire change of scenery and costumes will be made. The costumes to be worn by the pretty little chorus girls will be more beautiful and dazzling than the first part of the week.

WILL CLOSE ON MEMORIAL DAY

All stores and business places in Tonopah will close between the hours of ten and two on Decoration day. The mines will also close the day shift, so as to give the men employed, who belong to the various fraternal organizations and miners' union, an opportunity of parading with their respective orders. The parade will start at 10:30 o'clock in the morning.

KNIGHTS PYTHIAS, ATTENTION!

All members of Mizpah Lodge, K. of P., No. 25, and visiting brothers, are requested to assemble at their castle hall, in Tonopah, on Saturday morning, Decoration Day, at 10 o'clock, sharp, to participate in the memorial parade.

Now is the time to insure against fire, and the Southern Nevada Abstract Company is the place.

EAGLES AND ELKS GAME ON SUNDAY

WILL BE HOTLY CONTESTED ONE ON CALIFORNIA HEIGHTS.

The Eagles and Elks will meet in a return game Sunday at the California Heights grounds and from the present indications there will be some exciting times. Both teams have been practicing hard since the last game and have improved greatly in their playing. A number of changes have also been made in the lineup. An interesting bet has been made on the game by Judge Brissell and W. K. Wise, and whoever loses will have to wheel the winner down Main street from the Butler hall to McKim's store in a wheelbarrow.

WILL PLAY GOLDFIELD KIDS.

The Rounsveit kids, who defeated the Tonopah Mining bunch several days ago, will play a Goldfield team Sunday. The youngsters are able to put up a fast game of ball and no doubt will give the visitors a hard run for their money.

TONOPAH MAN IN PRELIMINARY

DAN E. MCCARTY WILL FIGHT JACK BURNS OF CHICAGO AT GOLDFIELD.

Dan E. McCarty, employed as a timberman in the Mizpah mine, goes to Goldfield Saturday night to engage in a preliminary bout with Chicago Jack Burns. McCarty should certainly give a good account of himself, for physically he is one of the best specimens of manhood that one would find in a long search. He stands six feet two inches, and weighs 180 pounds, while Burns weighs 175 pounds. Burns' friends at Goldfield intimate that he will make short work of the Tonopah man, but McCarty's admirers are just as confident that he will come home with the bacon.

TERRY MUSTAIN AT THE CASINO

GOES THREE FAST ROUNDS WITH THE COLORED BOXER, BUD MILLS.

Terry Mustain entertained the crowd at the Big Casino last night by boxing Bud Mills, the colored boy, four fast rounds. Terry was to box Billy Woods, but Woods' manager said that he was afraid that something might accidentally happen, so he took Bud Mills on instead. Mustain shows great improvement over his work here last summer, being much faster on his feet and showing that his work with the top notchers has done him a great deal of good. Terry will box Bob Ward at the Tonopah Club smoker on June 12th. This should be a good card, as both men are young and strong, and as their last fights were with the best men in their class, there should be plenty of fireworks on the 12th of June. Ward's last two fights were with Jim Flynn, whom he boxed to a draw, and with Jack O'Brine, which also resulted in a draw. Mustain boxed Geo. Gardner a draw and then knocked him out in eight rounds afterwards. Mustain will box again this evening at the Casino.
